

Sorority & Fraternity Life Strategic Planning Initiative - Overview of Working Groups

11.09.17

1 Housing Operations

Sub-group 1

- a. Ownership of sorority and fraternity lodges and houses and use of reserve funds
- b. Utilization of current residential spaces for sorority and fraternity organizations
- c. Disparity in quality of residential on campus

Sub-group 2

- d. Housing agreements
- e. Transparency related to financial records
- f. Operational and communication model for facility cleaning, repair, bidding process, renovation, and maintenance

Sub-group 3

- g. Model for staffing supervision and support of sorority and fraternity housing
- h. Alignment of policy and protocol between assignments, facility services, and programming

2 Self-Governance

Sub-group 1

- a. Development of the sorority and fraternity life narrative via website, social media, etc.
- k. Community building within the sorority and fraternity community
- l. Review of nomenclature and recommendations for changes/communication

Sub-group 2

- b. Relationship and trust building between students, staff, alumni, and headquarters
- d. Definition of and actions for self-governance and accountability
- e. Organizational advising structure that includes faculty, staff, and alumni
- i. Scope, responsibility, and practice of the Sorority and Fraternity Life Board and its relationships with the Councils, House/Lodge leadership, and the Office of Student Conduct
- j. Process to determine organization return to campus and return to residential space

Sub-group 3

- c. Definition of and expectations for academic engagement in the sorority and fraternity community
- f. Expectations for new membership recruitment, intake, and education
- g. Definition of and practices that support chapter "good standing"
- h. Expectations for legitimate recognition of sorority and fraternity chapters

Sub-group 4

- m. Recommendations for developing a model to support financial stability for sorority and fraternity life initiatives
- n. Development and alignment of policy and protocol between assignments, facility services, and programming